

Social Work Supervision

An encouraging and positive environment in which to explore your unique professional life situation, develop your strengths and examine work/life challenges.

Models of Supervision approaches used (trainings attended):

Health Care Supervision - Tony Morrison

Reflective Supervision - Michael Carroll

Reflective Supervision Toolkit - Daphne Hewson

Embodiment in Supervision - Glenda Fredman

Relational Supervision for External Supervisors - Dr Brenda Clare

Narrative Therapy - Michael White

Creativity Theories - Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi

Expressive Art Therapy, Trauma Informed & Positive Psychology - Dr Cathy Malchiodi

Clinical Supervisor:

Daphne Middleton BSW (Hons) Grad Dip Ed (Arts Ed) BA (Fine Arts)

Accredited Mental Health Social Worker (Australian Association of Social Workers-AASW) 2007

Daphne has over 25 years experience in providing counselling and mental health services and has provided external clinical supervision for a wide range of helping professionals as a private provider since 2007. She has held a position as Professional Excellence Advisor/Clinical Supervisor in a dedicated supervision team for 3 years providing all aspects of professional excellence. In that role she supervised over 46 staff working in programs such as Domestic Violence, Child Development, Adolescent Outreach, Corrections and Post Release Prison, Child and Adolescent Mental Health, Early Intervention, Refugee and Asylum Seekers, EAP Counsellors, Accommodation Support.

Contact:

0404 014 343 info@resilienceproject.com.au